

Consulting | February 2017

University of Florida Case Competition 2017

Company Profile

Deloitte Consulting is the leading functional area of the world's largest professional services firm. Leveraging various capabilities, we are able to drive value across integral facets of business in a wide range of industries, both public and private. We deliver not only a wide breadth of knowledge but also depth when it comes to innovation and insight.

In the News:

- Ranked in "100 Best Companies to Work For" (Fortune 2016)
- Ranked #1 Global Consulting Organization based market share (Gartner 2016)
- Named in "Top 50 Companies for Diversity" (Diversity Inc. 2016)

Participant Criteria

- Have 3-4 team members
- Have an interest in the Consulting industry and Federal space
- U.S. Citizenship and ability to obtain a U.S. Government Security Clearance
- Freshman, sophomore, junior, or seniors graduating in December 2017
- Must be able to coordinate team member schedules, adhere to all deadlines, and participate in final presentation
- All majors are welcome
- To enroll in the competition, email ufbtarecruiting@deloitte.com with your team information and resumes or as an individual to be assigned to a team

Case Competition Overview

- Deloitte Consulting, in conjunction with UF IIE, is pleased to announce the 2017 Undergraduate Federal Technology Consulting Case Challenge
- Students will compete as teams while assuming the role of consultants
- Teams are given a case based off a real-life client issue Deloitte Consulting has faced
- Each team will work with a Deloitte coach to identify key business issues and come up with a solution to present to a panel of Deloitte practitioners, who will act as the client
- The competition will test analytical, teamwork, communication, and presentation skills
- Attend the optional Virtual Information Session on Wednesday, February 22nd at 6:15 PM either by going to bit.ly/ufcasecomp or the viewing in the Reitz Union Room 2360

Benefits of Participating

Networking

You will have the opportunity to network with Deloitte professionals, ask questions about the Consulting field, and find out more on career opportunities at Deloitte

Experience

You will analyze important situations and make decisions that consultants handle on a daily basis, an excellent practice for future case interviews

Resume Builder

Case Competitions are a great way to show your interest in the Consulting industry and to help your resume stand out in the interview process

